The First English Regntta.

T. Doggett, the comedian, has been regarded as the founder of aquatic sports in England, since he first instituted, in 1716, annual prizes for rowing, and these rowing matches have been continued until the present day. But in the winter of 1774 Lord Lyttelton and the Savoir Vivre club determined to hold in the following year a "regatta" which should rival any ever held at Venice.

This was arranged for June 23, 1775, and on that day the whole river from London bridge to the Ship tavern at Millbank was covered with pleasure boats, both sides of the water assuming the appearance of a splendid fair. Two races were rowed, and at the conclusion of the sport the invited guests proceeded to the rotunda at Ranelagh, where supper was served at 10 o'clock, after which a ball was given in the Temple of Neptune, a temporary structure erected near the rotunda, the company including the Dukes of Gioucester and Cambridge, the lord mayor and several ambassadors.

The Conventional Idea. Recently a very black negro appeared in the mayor's office in New York city. He convoyed a negro woman under his wing. "I'm the Rev. Dr. Cooper, sah, of North Carolina, sah, and she's my wife. I want a divorce from her because she won't obey what I tell her She's a good girl, but she won't obey. and I want the mayor to give me a divorce." The Rev. Dr. Cooper had the usual ideas of masculine supremacy even though he didn't know enough to know the mayor could not grant di-

Cheated Death.

Kldney trouble often ends fatally, but by choosing the right medicine, E. 1-lb packages, 8c; Fard, 15-lb boxes H. Wolfe, of Bear Grove, Iowa, cheated death. He says: "Two years ago I had Kidney Trouble, which caused me great pain, suffering and anxiety, but I took Electric Bitters, which effected a complete cure. I have also found them of great benefit in general debility and nerve trouble, and keep them constantly on hand, since, as a find they have no equal." Chas. Rogers, druggist, guarantees them at 50c.
